*WHAT DOES CERTIFIED MEAN?

'Certified' means all copied pages of ORIGINAL proof of identification documents (including any linking documents) need to be certified as true copies by any individual approved to do so (see below).

The person who is authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copy and make sure both documents are identical, then make sure all pages have been certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy' followed by their signature, printed name, qualification (eg. Justice of the Peace, Australia Post employee, etc) and date.

The following people can certify copies of the originals as true and correct copies:

- a permanent employee of Australia Post with two or more years continuous service
- a finance company officer with two or more years of continuous service (with one or more finance companies)
- an officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian Financial Services License (AFSL), having two or more years continuous service with one or more licensees
- a notary public officer
- a police officer
- a registrar or deputy registrar of a court
- a Justice of the Peace
- a person enrolled on the roll of a State or Territory Supreme Court or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner
- an Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer
- a judge of a court
- a magistrate
- a Chief Executive Officer of a Commonwealth Court

- a solicitor
- a Councillor of a municipality
- a medical practitioner
- a dentist
- a veterinary practitioner
- a pharmacist
- a bank branch manager
- a certified practising accountant
- a person accredited as a chartered accountant
- a minister of religion
- a person qualified to witness affidavits
- a permanent employee of the Commonwealth, State or Territory, or local government or an authority associated with these governments with two or more years continuous service

HAVE YOU CHANGED YOUR NAME OR ARE YOU SIGNING ON BEHALF OF ANOTHER PERSON?

If you have changed your name from the name we have on record or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a certified* linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names. Suitable linking documents are:

Change of name – Certified copy of Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office.

Signed on behalf of the applicant – Certified copy of Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney.
